General Guideline for the 1st Semester Mid-Term Examination 2024-25

As per the Academic calendar (2024-25), the Mid-Term Examination for both UG and PG/Ph.D should be conducted during December 11-17, 2024.

While conducting the Mid-term examination, the following points as per the Rules of Examination and Evaluation, ICAR-IARI, New Delhi, should be adhered to.

- The schedule of the Mid-term Examination shall be decided locally by the Exam Cell/Coordinator/ Professor (UG &PG).
- The Question Papers for the Mid-Term Examination are to be set by the concerned course leader in consultation with the faculties associated with the course.
- The duration of the Mid-Term Examination should be at least 1 hour for 30 marks. If the duration is extended, the marks should be increased proportionately. The duration of the mid-term examination in no case should go beyond 2 hours.
- The Mid-term Question Paper should have both objective type (30%) and subjective type (70%) questions.
- The objective type questions should be comprising True/False, Fill in the blanks, Matching, MCQ, etc.
- The subjective type question should be comprising Short note, Justify the statement, descriptive type question, Problem solving, etc.
- As per the 6th Dean's Committee report, there should also be Quiz, Mid-Term, and final Practical Examination for the "Courses with only Practical" i.e. 0+1 courses. Therefore, the current (2024-25 batch) UG 1st year 0+1 courses will have Quiz and Mid-Term Examination now while the current 2nd and 3rd year 0+1 courses will go as per the old rule i.e. will have only Practical examination at the end.
- All the examinations are to be conducted under strict supervision of the invigilators to be decided by the Exam Cell/Coordinator/ Professor (UG &PG).
- Violators of the examination rules should be dealt with as per the rules in the Purple Book.
- The copies and other logistics for the examination are to be supplied by the Exam Cell/Coordinator of the Hub or the Professor section of the Division/Institute.
